

October 4, 2018

Our solidarity got results in Gander, we helped get a new NAFTA deal that works for workers and we marked Orange Shirt Day this week. Also in the news, Unifor donates to the Canadian Red Cross and our health care conference brought members and activists together in Halifax.

WHAT'S HOT

Solidarity wins in Gander as hundreds of

TAKE ACTION

Stay updated on the latest in health care

activists shut down D-J Composites, where 30 members are locked out.

READ MORE

– sign up for The Pulse newsletter today,
just in time for the next issue.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

In memory of Sister Louise
1959-2018

Unifor members mourn Louise Leaman-Corbin, Local 2216 in Kentville, Nova Scotia who passed away suddenly in Gander.

READ MORE

More than 160 delegates attended the Health Care Conference, hearing from guest speakers and participating in workshops.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Retail Council of Canada's attack on equal pay provisions that protect millions of workers.

READ MORE

Unifor members honour the survivors and families of Canada's residential school system at Orange Shirt Day Pow Wow.

READ MORE

Unifor front and centre as USMCA trilateral trade deal between Canada, the U.S. and Mexico, achieves wins for workers.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Nearly 250 members ratify new four-year collective agreement at Kruger pulp and paper mill in Newfoundland and Labrador.

READ MORE

Local 1944 members ratify three-year agreement at High Liner Foods, with wage increases and maintenance of DB pension.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor donates $50,000 to Canadian Red Cross to aid Ontario and Quebec residents' recovery from destructive tornadoes.

RESOURCES

We're fighting back against health care cuts and privatization in Ontario – share this poster to spread the word.

READ MORE

