

unILINK

April 4, 2019

Act, Empower and Educate is the new motto for Unifor's Education Department as more than 100 discussion leaders come together in Port Elgin. And activists continue the Ontario fight back, while forestry workers get bad news in Nova Scotia and a Unifor delegation lobbies the B.C. Government for better working conditions.

WHAT'S HOT

Wear red on April 9 to send a message on Equal Pay Day and help close the gender wage gap.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Rally for Education on Saturday to stand against Ford's plans to increase class sizes and cut teacher and support jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

More than 100 activists attended a discussion leader conference to act, empower and educate our members across the country.

READ MORE

Dark day for Nova Scotia forestry workers as province demands more study on pulp mill.

READ MORE

Unifor delegation lobbies B.C. Government to improve labour standards.

READ MORE

The Unifor Social Justice Fund is helping to provide life-saving aid as the Cyclone Idai humanitarian crisis worsens.

READ MORE

Telephone town hall brings Ontario members together to talk about Bill 74, and its potential impact to patients, communities and workers.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Four new tentative agreements have been reached with Unifor National Council 4000 and CN Transportation Ltd in Montreal.

READ MORE

Members at General Dynamics Land Systems Canada voted 95 per cent in favour of a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Atlantic Regional Director Lana Payne calls out federal Conservatives for their “faux outrage” on feminism.

READ MORE

Read Unifor's submission to Ontario's social policy committee to stop Doug Ford's attack on public health care.

READ MORE