

December 19, 2019

Unifor launches national boycott of all Co-op retailers as 800 refinery workers remain locked out in Regina, auto assembly ends in Oshawa and Northern Pulp workers face more uncertainty as N.S. government delays approval of effluent treatment plant, plus more long-term care workers join Unifor.

 WHAT'S HOT

Watch what happened as activists gathered in Whistler for B.C. Council.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Pledge to join Co-op boycott right now to support locked out refinery workers.

READ MORE

Unifor called a nationwide boycott of all business and services of the Federated Co-operatives Limited after the Co-Op Refinery locked out 800 workers fighting to protect their pension plan.

READ MORE

Unifor is deeply concerned about the high likelihood of widespread job loss across rural Nova Scotia after province requests studies on the Northern Pulp effluent treatment plant.

READ MORE

Unifor members are saddened by the end of an era as vehicle production at General Motors Oshawa will cease this week after operating for more than a century.

READ MORE

Unifor urges the Toronto Transit Commission to proceed with purchase of 60 new streetcars for the city's overcrowded system and secure the future the Bombardier facility in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 651 assist the family dealing the tragic loss of Jenaya Wapemoose and establish a trust fund for Wapemoose's young daughter.

READ MORE

READ MORE

After years of under-representation by their previous union, workers at a Niagara long-term care home have voted overwhelmingly to join Unifor.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor contributes of $135,000 to 48 food banks across Canada to ensure that everyone has enough to eat this holiday season.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Android LLC Brampton fined $65,000 after worker critically injured.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Stand with Canada's auto workers. Watch this tribute to auto workers and learn more about the labour rights and social justice programs they fought for over the years that benefit us all today.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Download Unifor's 2020 calendar and don't miss our events and conferences.

READ MORE

Unifor