

unILINK

November 7, 2019

Unifor is active coast-to-coast as Vancouver transit members ramp up job action after talks with TransLink break down while the union launches a new billboard campaign in support of Newfoundland Dominion grocery store workers. Plus, Unifor welcomes Toronto area hotel workers as hospitality sector membership continues to grow.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor is excited to partner with the Toronto Rock with a special season opener offer for members, family and friends. Purchase your exclusive tickets today.

READ MORE

Dominion workers deserve fair pay and good jobs

savegoodjobs.ca

New ad campaign focuses on good jobs for Dominion grocery store workers as Unifor prepares for negotiations with grocery-giant owner Loblaw Companies Ltd.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Job action initiated by nearly 5,000 Coast Mountain Bus Company members after company fails to address working conditions, benefits, and wages at the bargaining table.

READ MORE

Halifax Irving Shipbuilding members fight back against outsourcing that flies in the face of the Canadian Shipbuilding Procurement Strategy.

READ MORE

Ford government's fall fiscal update shows no reversal to funding cuts despite bombshell revelation that the province's $15 billion deficit was a complete fabrication.

READ MORE

More than 150 workers at two hotels in the Toronto area vote join Unifor in just two days.

READ MORE

A proud sponsor of the Special Olympic 2020 Canada Winter Games, Unifor believes in removing barriers to participation and in the transformative power of sport.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Last chance to submit comments to support Northern Pulp workers before Friday deadline. Take a few minutes to help save hundreds of jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor Ontario Regional Council

December 6-7, 2019

Final preparations are underway for a dynamic and engaging Ontario Regional Council. Don't miss out - online registration deadline is Friday November 15.

READ MORE

Unifor