

August 13, 2020

Contract negotiations for more than 17,000 Detroit Three members officially begin. Unifor calls for swift and severe response to the U.S. imposition of tariffs on Canadian aluminium. With weeks to go Ontario school bus drivers seek proper COVID-19 safety standards. Plus, get your Unifor Labour Day 2020 shirt now!

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Detroit Three bargaining formally launched with meetings with Fiat Chrysler, Ford, and General Motors to exchange documents followed by a media conference.

WATCH VIDEO

In the spirit of that celebration and unity, all locals are invited to order one-of-a-kind Labour Day t-shirts. All proceeds from shirt sales will be donated to a variety of important charities and causes across Canada.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor opened contract talks with the Detroit Three with the union telling automakers the theme of AutoTalks 2020 is The Future is Made in Canada.

READ MORE

Unifor called for the federal government to come out swinging after Donald Trump re-imposed unfair tariffs on

Unifor members working in British Columbia's public transit sector welcomed new regulations that would mandate face

Canadian aluminum exports.

READ MORE

A departing Stephen McNeil takes one more swipe at workers as his government prevents Northern Pulp from paying severance to laid-off Unifor members.

READ MORE

coverings for passengers.

READ MORE

Inadequate pandemic protocols put students and school bus drivers at risk as return-to-school dates fast approach.

READ MORE

Fresh Del Monte members negotiate their first contract with pandemic protocols in place.

READ MORE

Unifor members bargain another industry-leading agreement in B.C.'s hospitality sector, this time at the Residence Inn.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Don't miss it! Register today for Unifor's Build Back Better Summer Summit to get access to members-only regional meetings, panel conversations and leadership updates.

READ MORE

To follow the latest news on Detroit Three negotiations and find background on Canada's auto industry visit the Auto Talks 2020 website.

READ MORE