

August 20, 2020

Members from coast-to-coast-to-coast are connecting and mobilizing virtually at Unifor's Summer Summit. COVID-19 heroes share the challenges workers face on the frontlines of the pandemic with Summit delegates. Unifor calls for a safe and measured return to air travel. Plus, order your Civil Rights Movement t-shirt now!

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members from front-line workplaces shared their first-hand experiences, lessons from the pandemic, and what must happen to prioritize safety and fair wages.

The Unifor 2020 Civil Rights Movement Campaign stands against systemic racism and discrimination while working to foster equity, inclusion, and diversity. Members can show their support by wearing campaign t-shirts, available for order by Locals.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members are gathering virtually at the Build Back Better Summer Summit to discuss key issues including concerns of workers on the pandemic frontline, racial justice, and the challenge of rebuilding a post-pandemic economy that puts workers first.

READ MORE

As COVID-19 shifts economic, political and

Western Regional Director Gavin

social ground Unifor National President Jerry Dias tells Summer Summit delegates that momentum to raise work standards, fight racism and advance equality is building.

READ MORE

McGarrigle addressed Summer Summit participants and discussed the political action and major job actions undertaken in the western provinces since last summer.

WATCH VIDEO

It's time to move beyond the blanket restrictions on air travel that were needed at the start of the pandemic, and begin exploring ways to carefully reopen the industry.

READ MORE

The federal government has announced tentative plans for measures to counter U.S. tariffs on aluminum exports but Unifor says they should be expanded.

READ MORE

With the formal opening of AutoTalks20 behind us, read the latest bargaining update for information on contract priorities, the structure of the committees, and next steps in the negotiation process.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

AutoTalks20 is about the present but it is also about the future. Watch the bargaining committee's message to Unifor's 17,000 Detroit Three members.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor's
Road Map for a Fair, Inclusive and Resilient Economic Recovery

Download Unifor's Road Map for a Fair, Inclusive and Resilient Economic Recovery, the union's blueprint to #BuildBackBetter after COVID-19.

READ MORE