

January 30, 2020

An historic show of solidarity from Unifor members across Canada helped get Co-op back to the bargaining table in Regina. Unifor backs independent panel recommendation to require international internet broadcasters to invest in Canadian content. Plus, download a new fact sheet on Coronavirus from Unifor's Occupational Health and Safety Department.

 WHAT'S HOT

The weather may be cold but locked out Co-op members and supporters lighten the mood and keep warm by busting their moves. Watch their take on the Safety Fence dance.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Tell Premier Moe to stand up to Co-op, and show that if bargaining fails they are ready to end this dispute with binding arbitration.

READ MORE

Federated Co-operatives Limited finally agrees to return to bargaining table as hundreds of Unifor members from across Canada hold picket lines in three provinces as lockout drags on.

READ MORE

Unifor files in Nova Scotia Supreme Court for a judicial review of Northern Pulp proposed effluent treatment facility decision.

READ MORE

Unifor report shows that federal government policies weakened the West Coast commercial salmon fishing industry, leaving it unable to cope with the 2019 crisis.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes panel recommendation that calls for internet giants like Netflix, Amazon and Disney to contribute to Canadian news, sports and entertainment programming.

Conservative leadership candidate Erin O'Toole fancies himself as Jerry Dias's worst nightmare. Not even close.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor Local 252 members on strike at Voith Hydro in Mississauga since November 14, 2019 to defend pensions and benefits return to the bargaining table today.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Grand River Transit members ratify new collective agreement

READ MORE

Air traffic controllers at Local 5454 vote overwhelming in favour of new four-year collective with Nav Canada.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

The heavy-handed arrests of National President Jerry Dias and 13 other picketers by Regina Police shows disrespect for working peoples' rights and disregard for the basic role of peace officers.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

While public-health officials assure the risk of contracting Coronavirus is low in Canada we all have a responsibility to reduce risks of exposure and transmission of the virus. For more information, download this fact sheet.

READ MORE

