

October 29, 2020

Unifor members at Dominion in Newfoundland found themselves confronted by police, Unifor celebrates an NDP victory in BC and commits to stand up for Crowns and workers' rights in Saskatchewan, members rally for a safe and planned reopening of the aviation industry, with government support, and bargaining get underway with General Motors.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch as striking Dominion workers were threatened with criminal charges as the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary surrounded a peaceful secondary picket line with tactical and riot squads.

WATCH VIDEO

While governments worldwide have stepped up to support airline workers Canada has remained silent, as pandemic largely grounds the airline industry. Share this video and show your support for aviation workers.

WATCH VIDEO

IN THE NEWS

Unifor and Loblaw Co. resume negotiations today, after 10 weeks of escalating strike action by 1,400 Dominion workers in Newfoundland.

READ MORE

Unifor members celebrate the election of the BCNDP majority government but the work for progress for working families continues.

READ MORE

The re-election of the anti-worker Scott Moe government means Unifor must re-double efforts to protect Crowns and basic workers' rights.

READ MORE

Aviation workers take to streets of Toronto and Montreal to demand support.

READ MORE

Alberta health care workers are standing up to Jason Kenney and Unifor has their back.

READ MORE

The federal government announced options for rapid COVID-19 tests for international air passengers at Calgary International Airport.

READ MORE

Unifor was selected as one of 85 organizations by the Federal government's Anti-Racism Action Plan to combat racism within organizations and communities.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on the Ontario government to legislate a minimum care standard of four hours of hands-on care in long-term care homes by immediately passing Bill 13, the Time to Care Act.

READ MORE

Talks began with General Motors on Thursday October 22, 2020 on behalf of 4100 members from Localsa 222, 199 and 636 with a strike deadline set for November 4, 2020 at 11:59 p.m.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Canada needs a Canadian solution to force online media giants Facebook, Google and others to pay their fair share to support Canadian journalism.

READ MORE

Download the revised factsheet on the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS).

READ MORE