

September 28, 2023

Unifor members at Ford ratify historic collective agreement, auto talks shift gears to take on General Motors, administrative professionals demand better from N.S. government, members rallied across the country at DHL facilities to demand safe rates, and Unifor member Tracy Schmidt takes on the conservative incumbent in a bellwether Manitoba riding.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

National President Lana Payne provides an update on the status of auto bargaining and announces the next company for negotiations.

READ MORE

Wear orange on Saturday, September 30.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members voted to ratify a new three-year collective agreement with Ford of Canada.

READ MORE

Unifor has tapped GM as the next company for the union's negotiations with automakers.

READ MORE

World News Day is a global campaign to amplify the power and impact of fact-based journalism.

READ MORE

September 30 is a national day to recognize the widespread abuse at residential schools, honour survivors, and work for reconciliation.

READ MORE

Health care workers wore red shirts and spoke out against unjust treatment of the administrative professionals in Nova Scotia's acute health care system.

READ MORE

Photos from Week 4 of the member-to-member campaign for the Manitoba election.

VIEW PHOTOS

The impact of big tech, job cuts, and harassment were among the discussions at this year's Media Council.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 191 member Tracy Schmidt is running for the Manitoba NDP in the battleground provincial riding of Rossmere.

READ MORE

Unifor members joined hundreds of supporters of public health care to demand the Ontario premier stop his privatization schemes.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor members at Local 114 have voted in favour of job action at Pacific Western Transportation.

READ MORE

Unifor members of Local 112 working at Angus Facilities Management have ratified a new three-year agreement.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Unifor members rallied outside of DHL facilities across Canada calling for safer measures for road transportation workers.

VIEW PHOTOS

September 28 is the International Day for Safe Abortion—take action by signing onto the letter to federal and provincial governments.

READ MORE